Residential English language courses

Vacational Studies Courses have been running for 35 years. We have tried in this time to develop an enjoyable balance between ‘vacation’ and ‘study’. Here is our programme for Summer 2008.

the courses

Accredited by the British Council

Vacational Studies is ‘Accredited by The British Council’ and is a member of English UK – formerly ARELS (The Association of Recognised English Language Services) – a professional body, membership of which is granted only after thorough inspection by The British Council and re-inspection every four years. We were last inspected in 2007 and are Accredited until March 2012.

About this brochure

This is an Information Book. The first part (this section) gives you a factual overview of the work we do, so you can decide if we are right for your youngster. The second part (‘News 2007-2008’) is written in a different style so you have an idea of my personality which necessarily influences the atmosphere on the Courses. It gives a more detailed rationale of the 2008 Courses and what has shaped them, so you and your son or daughter will be fully informed and can prepare for the experience. If your application is accepted, both sections are essential reading. In particular, ‘Unrealisable Expectations’ in the second section deals with fundamental issues and must be read.

What we try to do

Vacational Studies tries to create a totally international Course with students from as many different countries as possible. We avoid accepting a large number of students from any particular country. In this way we try to ensure that English is the main medium of communication among the students. By using English not just as a school subject but as a living language, we hope our students will realise better its importance and value. Our students want to use English to make friends. This element of self-motivation greatly increases their fluency.

The emphasis on the practical use of English is combined with a full sports, entertainment and excursion programme helping young people to learn ‘English internationally’. But it is more than this...

Residence

The Courses are fully residential. Students eat, sleep and receive classes in the Schools.

The students

We accept boys and girls – near-beginners, intermediate and more advanced students – aged 11 to 17. Complete beginners are not accepted because they cannot participate in an international community.

The Courses are sports-orientated and encourage good social development in a community situation.

Students who will benefit

Please make sure that our Course is suitable for your child and that he/she wants to come. Those who will benefit and we enjoy having with us will be internationally-minded, interested in English, outgoing, gregarious and able to function independently. They will also be willing to accept the constraints of community living. We consider it so important that our standards and expectations are understood and accepted that we ask parents to confirm that they and their children have read the rules and that they agree to abide by them. A slip sent with the rules is provided for this purpose.

How they will benefit

We hope that our students will learn a great deal of English, make good friendships and develop a positive international feeling. As well as formal study, we concentrate on the holiday aspect of the Course. While we try to involve students in all activities, we naturally respect the wishes of those who like to read quietly or be with friends. Over the years, we have built up an excellent reputation with parents and young people all over the world. Many boys and girls spend several summers with us renewing old friendships and making new ones. Most students come to us on personal recommendation. The numbers on the Courses are deliberately kept quite small so that the staff can get to know everybody and treat each young person as an individual.

Choice of Course

The Courses have the same format. The only differences are location and dates. 2008 dates are:-

Mary Hare	10 July - 7 August 2008	(4 weeks)
Cheam	12 July - 9 August 2008	(4 weeks)

The Schools and surroundings

For 2008 we have Courses at Schools near Newbury - The Mary Hare School and Cheam School. Newbury is a small country town in a pleasant part of southern England in the Berkshire Downs. It is 70km west of London and 45km south of Oxford. The Schools we use are among the best in the area.

The Mary Hare School

Cheam School

the schools

The Mary Hare School

The Mary Hare School is a campus comprising several buildings that we have used since 1982. Various architectural styles are represented. There are formal gardens and woodland and extensive grounds which include several playing fields, a range of tennis courts, a gymnasium and a large indoor swimming pool.

Cheam School

Cheam School is a late nineteenth century mansion that we have used since 1975. A particular feature is the sunken formal garden. The School's large grounds with playing fields, lawns and woods, back onto Watership Down. There is a sports hall/gymnasium and a range of tennis courts. It has an open-air swimming pool.

the programme

The teaching

We use Task-Based Learning. The emphasis in lessons is to help develop the students' speaking, listening, reading and writing skills through a topic and task-based approach. This involves working with students on a variety of activities centred on a particular topic and helping them with the language needed to complete the activities. For example, creating a film script; using the script as a basis for language-study; filming the script; editing the film; creating a DVD to take home. The students will be using English as a working language. We try to give students materials and activities that are different from those in their own countries. Oral and written English are taught and there is an emphasis on conversation practice. A prize is awarded on each Course for academic excellence.

A staff of professional teachers with experience of the teaching of English, give 4 lessons, each of 45 minutes, every day except Sunday and excursion days = 15 hours per week. In addition, there is a 30 minute 'homework' period each afternoon. Classes are graded according to age and ability in English. Students are placed first in an 'assessment group' and complete a range of oral and written tasks, including a formal placement test. The combined results of these tasks together with the teacher's opinion eventually determine placement in a class. Class placements are constantly reviewed and students may be moved to more or less advanced classes, according to their performance. The teacher:student ratio is approximately 1:12. Maximum class size is 16. We provide all books and teaching materials. Course books used include 'Cutting Edge', 'Over to You', 'Reward', 'Matters', 'Energy 2', 'Smart' and 'Total English'.

A Certificate of Attendance is sent at the end of the Course. This Certificate is accepted in some countries as justification for a state bursary. For example, the Italian Ministry of Education has decreed that a Certificate issued by a British Council Accredited School counts towards the Italian School Leaving Certificate. In Monaco, a bursary can be applied for.

Sports

Sport is an important part of the Course. Our Sports/Social Organiser arranges a regular programme including football, basketball, volleyball, baseball, tennis, table-tennis, swimming, etc. Competitions run throughout the Course. There is also 'Sports Day' when the Schools meet for friendly competitions in the major sports.

We take all practicable safety precautions – for example, students using the swimming pool are always supervised by staff.

Social activities

We try to create a relaxed and friendly 'family' atmosphere in which young people will feel 'at home' quickly and make good social contacts. There is a variety of non-sporting activities on the programme – games, talent shows, folies bergères, discotheques, barbecues, concerts, optional theatre visits, etc. The programme is a full one. There is always something to do and students are encouraged to participate.

Excursions

There are three days out. We intend one to be to London for sightseeing; another to a designer outlet or town for shopping; the third excursion is to 'Sports Day'. Travel and staff supervision on these excursions are included in the Course Fee. Other excursions can be arranged on request.

A typical day

08.15	Breakfast
09.00	First class
09.45	Break
09.55	Second class
10.40	Break
11.10	Third class
11.55	Break
12.05	Fourth class
12.50	Break
13.00	Lunch
13.45	'Homework'
14.15	Break
14.45	Organised sports and games
18.00	Evening meal
19.00	Games, films, etc.
21.00	Hot chocolate and biscuits
21.30	'Club'
22.30	Bedtime (or 22.45)

Pocket money and stamps are obtainable from the Office every day from 13.20 - 13.45 and 14.15 - 14.45.

Shopping afternoons (optional extra)

In addition to the organised excursions (which are included in the Course Fee), there are one or two optional shopping afternoons which are not included in the Course Fee. These are in Newbury or another town near the School. We think it safe for young people to shop in these towns unaccompanied by staff, if parents have indicated their agreement to this on the Application Form. This helps them achieve a measure of independence. Younger students can be accompanied by staff if parents or we so wish. There will be several staff in the town while our students are shopping. Travel is by private coach from the School with accompanying staff. The cost of transport (payable by students if they wish to go) is about £7.

Theatre visits (optional extra)

Tickets for smash-hit West End musicals that are booked out months in advance have been requested and we will be allocated a limited number. Students who apply early enough will be able to see one of these shows. The cost of each (show + travel to the theatre) will be in the range £30-£50. The cost should be added to pocket money. If it is not possible to provide a ticket, the money will be added back to pocket money.

Tennis lessons (optional extra)

Tennis may be played at any time. Lessons are not needed. We can arrange professional lessons, if required, for beginners or near-beginners only. Six one-hour lessons are given in groups of no more than four students. These must be requested in advance on the Application Form. If tennis lessons are taken, a tennis racquet must be brought.

As these lessons are prearranged, it is not possible to refund the cost of lessons booked, but not taken. Parents are asked to make sure that lessons are really wanted before booking them. If tennis lessons are requested, the cost (£40.00) should be added to pocket money.

Trinity Graded Certification in Spoken English (optional extra)

Trinity College, London is a leading examinations board whose qualifications are recognised worldwide by academic institutions, companies and professional organisations. Trinity is accredited in England, Wales and Northern Ireland by the Qualifications and Curriculum Authority. The grades are mapped to the Common European Framework. We offer Trinity certification in Spoken English at Grades 1-9. We decide on the Grade for entry and prepare the candidate accordingly.

Grades 1 - 3 (CEF A1; A2.1) are a conversation with the examiner on a number of prepared subject areas lasting 5-7 minutes. (Total 5-7 minutes)

Grades 4 - 6 (CEF A2.2; B1.1; B1.2) are a discussion of a topic prepared by the candidate lasting 5 minutes and a conversation on two subject areas chosen by the examiner from a list lasting 5 minutes. (Total 10 minutes)

Grades 7 - 9 (CEF B2.1; B2.2; B2.3) are as above + a 5 minute interactive task initiated by the examiner, but maintained and led by the candidate. (Total 15 minutes)

Performance at each level is assessed by the examiner and a grade is awarded (A - Distinction; B - Merit; C - Pass; D - Fail). Certificates are issued (Pass - with Distinction; Pass - with Merit; Pass).

The cost for all Grades is £50.

“I still can't stop crying, and I'm constantly thinking about everyone I miss”

Food safety

Vacational Studies policy is not to serve any food about which there is any concern for any reason. We serve only what we believe parents would feel safe to serve their own children in their own homes.

Meals

Food is an important part of the Course. Meals are prepared by professional caterers to a high standard. Our specification for lunch and dinner is a choice of hot dishes (including one vegetarian) or a cold dish, choice from a salad bar comprising about ten different items, a choice of desserts and fresh fruit. Students can have the first choice they want and can return for another choice as 'seconds'. If they cannot find anything they like, they can ask us to ask the caterer to prepare something special.

There is always a vegetarian option. Other special diets can be catered for. Cold orange juice or other drinks are available at no charge. There is a small 'tuck shop'.

At times throughout the Course, the menu will be varied to include, for example, barbecues (spare rib, hamburger, jacket potatoes, coleslaw dip, crisps, ice-cream, etc.) There will be a traditional British 'Christmas Dinner' (roast turkey with stuffing, roast potatoes, Brussels sprouts, cranberry jelly) and an 'English High Tea' (sandwiches, scones, jam and cream.) There may also be 'national meals'. If they wish, students from various countries can advise the kitchen staff on how to prepare and serve a meal consisting of dishes from their own country.

Any student can join the Food Committee which meets the Caterer regularly to discuss all aspects of the catering.

How we encourage the use of English

On each Course there are students from many different countries. We try to ensure a mixture of nationalities in classes and dormitories. We aim to stimulate the speaking of English socially in various ways. Members of staff and the British student(s) constantly encourage English-speaking around the School.

We institute a 'House' system at the start of the Course. In each House will be students mixed by nationality, gender and age. Team games are played as House Competitions for House Points. Additionally, House Points are awarded for individual excellence – such as using English socially. House Points can also be deducted. The House with the most Points is awarded a Treat. A Treat can be given at any stage in the Course and another Treat will be given at the end. We intend that the House Points and the Treats that are awarded from these will be positive inducements for participating and an encouragement to use English.

Here is a typical menu for guidance:-

Breakfast:

- Choice of cereal
- Choice of various breads, meats, cheese, fruit
- Jam, marmalade, other spreads
- Tea, coffee, milk, fresh orange juice

Lunch:

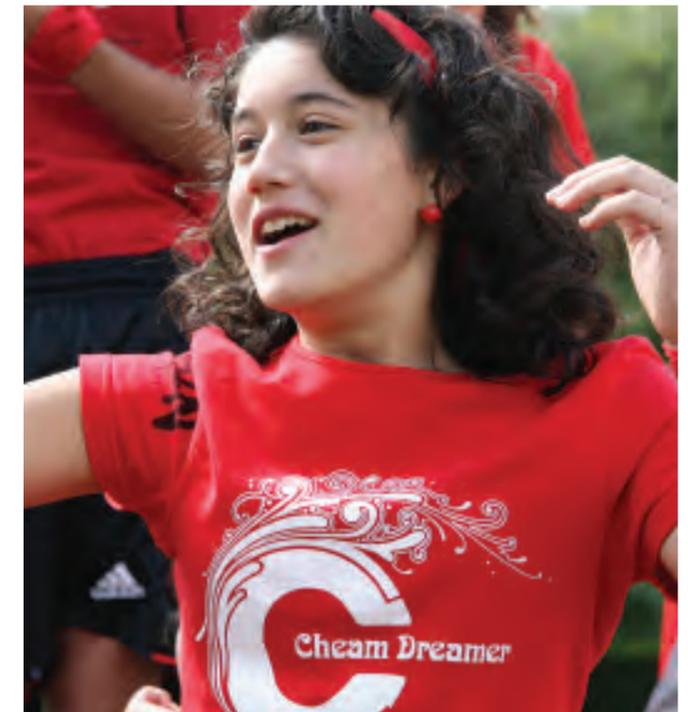

- Choice of one cold or three hot dishes
- Buffet-style salad bar
- Choice of desserts
- Fresh fruit

Dinner:

- Choice of one cold or three hot dishes
- Buffet-style salad bar
- Choice of desserts
- Fresh fruit

Before bedtime:

- Hot chocolate and biscuits

Health

Minor illnesses are treated by our own staff. There is a Matron in each School. We also use the services of doctors in the locality. The St John's Ambulance Service provides training for all our staff at the start of each Course in the latest methods of basic first aid and resuscitation. We ask parents to give us full health information on the Application Form. We request that those with food allergies come with a 1ml. Adrenalin (Epinephrine) 1:1000 injection pen – an 'EpiPen'. Children of EU/EEA nationality should bring a EHIC (European Health Insurance Card), available from their health service, entitling them as temporary residents to the same free treatment under the British National Health Service as British citizens for all, including pre-existing, conditions.

Religion

The Courses are interdenominational. If parents so wish, we shall arrange for Catholic or other students to attend an appropriate service. Please indicate this on the Application Form. Transportation to and from the church is payable by students.

Residential accommodation

At all Schools, students sleep in dormitories. Girls are in one part of the house, boys are in another.

Insurance

Every student is covered by special Insurance while they are with us. Details are on the enclosed information sheet. Briefly, the Insurance includes refund of full Course Fees if certified serious illness or accident to the student or parent during the month before the Course prevents attendance on the Course; private emergency medical treatment to the value of £1,000,000; personal possessions and luggage cover to the value of £500; personal money cover to the value of £200; return air fare or repatriation to the value of £1,000,000 if an APEX reservation is lost because of delayed or advanced departure through illness or accident while the student is with us. Personal accident insurance is included.

There is no extra charge for this Insurance. Every student is automatically covered (subject to the stated conditions) when the application is accepted.

How we look after students

We understand the concern felt by parents when their sons and daughters are away from home. They are under constant supervision, as far as is practicable, both in the School and on excursions. Our total staff:student ratio of about 1:7 ensures that our students are well looked-after.

In addition to the staff, on each Course may be one or two older ex-students, 'Staff Helpers', to assist with the sports and entertainment programme. We aim to have at least one native English-speaking student – a 'UK' rep.

During the Course, progress reports are sent to all parents describing performance in class and also social behaviour. At the end of the Course, all parents are sent a final report and leaving certificate together with a report from the Director on the student's general progress and behaviour.

If there is a problem

We shall contact you. Parents must ensure that we have a telephone number through which they can always be reached. If it is an emergency and we cannot reach you, we shall contact the person named in section 8 (our 'emergency contact') on the Application Form. If we cannot contact either of you, we shall assume your authority to act 'in loco parentis' and in a medical emergency, for example, give consent to appropriate medical treatment. We send students a list of rules and standards of behaviour expected before the Course begins. These are straightforward. Basically, we expect students to obey the law, respect the buildings, equipment and the feelings of other people and to show good manners. Students must read and know the rules before they come.

If a student is correctly motivated (see section on 'Students who will benefit'), there should be no discipline problems. If any should arise, we reserve the right to contact parents and, if we consider it necessary, require that he/she be taken home at the parents' expense without refund of Fees. We also reserve the right to send the writer of the original 'letter of recommendation' a photocopy of any correspondence we enter into.

"I spent all my summers at VacStuds since I was 11. Now I'm almost 17 and I know it is the best place you can go"

how to apply

How to apply

Answer all the questions on the Application Form and return it to us with (if this is a first application) a letter of recommendation from the school on behaviour and attitude to study. We shall tell you immediately if the application is acceptable and for which Course. A 'waiting list' operates when the Courses are full.

Letter of recommendation

To ensure that all our students are well-motivated and keen to participate, we ask that a brief letter of recommendation from the school accompanies all applications from new students. This should mention behaviour and attitude to study. No such letter is needed for students we already know or, exceptionally, when this might cause conflict with educational authorities.

When the application is accepted

We shall write to inform you of this and include our Invoice for the Course Fees. The Invoice can be settled in full immediately, or 50% can be paid immediately and the balance by the date shown on the Invoice. The place is confirmed when the full Course Fees have been received by us. We shall also request travel details.

How to pay

Please see the 'Course Fees' slip.

Pocket money

Pocket money can either be brought by students (as cash or a £ cheque drawn on a British bank, payable to 'Vacational Studies Pocket Money A/C') or sent in advance to the National Westminster Bank, 30 Market Place, Newbury, Berkshire RG14 5AJ in £ Sterling to Vacational Studies Pocket Money A/C 65400100 (IBAN number GB19 NWBK 6015 0765 4001 00) or in euro to Vacational Studies Pocket Money A/C 10388494 (IBAN number GB19 NWBK 6072 0610 3884 94). Our BIC number is: NWBK GB 2L. We also have a £ Sterling Girobank account for personal money. The number is 255 7444. We do not recommend an amount, but students will tend to bring about £350. Optional tennis coaching fees, the cost of the Trinity certification and the cost of theatre visit(s) should be added (if applicable). Do not send more money during the Course.

Clothes and possessions

Notes and advice on what to bring and other information will be sent to parents and students in advance.

travel

Travel

It is quite usual for our students to fly alone. 90% of our students arrive and depart in this way. There are many cut-price air ticket offers. The cheapest tickets are to be found on the airline's web site, NOT by phone and NOT via a travel agent. We operate a collection and return transport service between Heathrow Airport and the Schools on arrival and departure dates at no charge, subject to certain conditions. There will be major changes at Heathrow Airport in 2008. The new Terminal 5 will be opened in March 2008 for most British Airways flights. We shall operate our free collection service for flights arriving at Terminal 5 from 12.00 to 16.00 on 10 and 12 July and free return service to check-in students on outgoing flights departing from Heathrow Terminal 5 from 09.30 to 13.00 on 7 and 9 August. Other airlines will be allocated Terminals 1, 3 or 4 in March 2008. Our staff will cover one other Terminal. We will issue an information sheet in March 2008 specifying which Terminal this will be. To be sure of our free service, we suggest you use BA, if possible. We shall arrange a taxi/minibus service at cost with known drivers for collections/returns that are not part of our free service. If flights arrive earlier than 12.00, students wait for our staff near the Information Desk. If flights leave after 13.00, we explain the procedure and take students to wait in the correct area.

For young children (under 12), airlines operate an 'Unaccompanied Young Persons (UYP)' or 'Unaccompanied Minors (UM)' service on request and look after them. As airlines insist on a named person meeting and returning a child and that the person remains until the flight has departed, parents should note that if they buy UYP or UM tickets outside our times/terminals, these UYP or UM arrivals and departures must be by taxi at cost. The driver is known to us and has been working with us for many years. He will meet students and check them in personally. It is normally unnecessary for students to be booked to fly UYP or UM. Airlines (especially British Airways) are very helpful with young passengers at any age.

Our free standard service cannot be used when arrival is later or departure is earlier than our stated dates or times, or if the flight is via Gatwick, Luton or Stansted, or if a student is booked UYP or UM, or is outside our requested times. We can make special taxi or minibus arrangements on your behalf. We do not charge for making these arrangements, but the cost of the taxi or minibus is payable by the student. (As a guide, a one-way taxi for one person to Heathrow is about £90 and to Gatwick about £110. For two or more people, the cost is shared). Special requirements should be indicated on the Application Form and details sent separately.

At the airport

Before travelling, we send an identity badge and luggage tags to ensure quick recognition. Our representatives will carry blue 'Vacational Studies' folders and will meet students at the entrance to the Arrivals Hall after leaving the Customs Hall.

If you do not take our standard collection/return service, but we make other arrangements for you, the same procedure applies.

Visits to the schools

Visits to the Schools outside the Course dates may be made only by appointment through our Newbury Office.

If you come by car

Road directions are given after the Schools' addresses. Parents bringing students are asked to arrive at between 12.30 and 14.30. Parents collecting students on the last day are asked to arrive before 11.00.

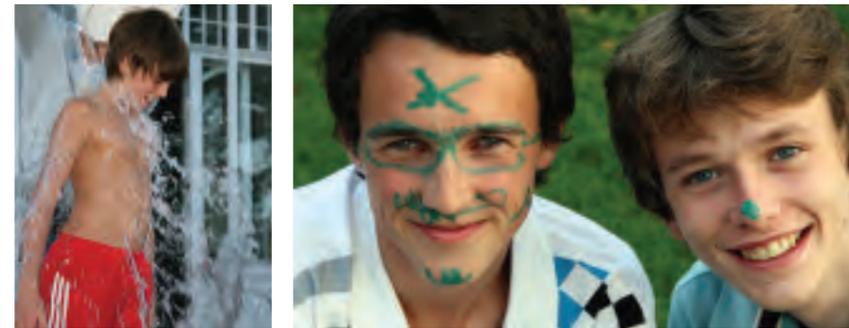

On arrival at the school

All money is handed in at the Office for safe keeping. Students can withdraw money every day. We keep passports and tickets safely. We cannot accept responsibility for pocket money or valuables not handed to us.

On the first day

On request, students will be allocated to a returning student who will act as a guide, explaining the layout of the building, the way the Course runs and answering any questions.

Schools' addresses and directions

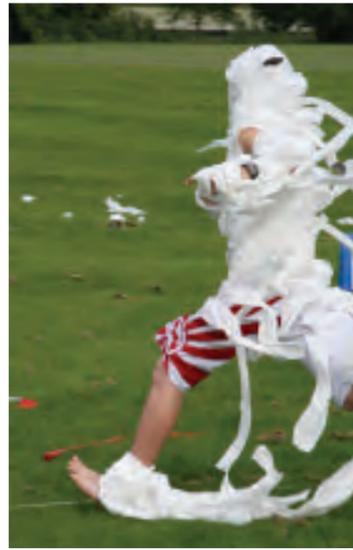

Finally

We have tried to describe the Courses fully and frankly. Please also see the section 'Unrealisable Expectations' in the News Section. The News Section (enclosed) contains more detailed information on various aspects of the Course. It is essential reading for the parents of Course participants and is not only a résumé of the previous summer. We hope this brochure contains all the information you need to make your choice. Any further details you may require can be obtained from the parents of our past students and past students themselves (the addresses of some of these are on the enclosed list) and from the Director. We suggest you contact our 'parental references' as they may offer useful advice.

Our Courses are designed with the benefit of decades of experience and we are confident that we can combine the learning of good written and spoken English with an unforgettable and enjoyable holiday.

“I will never forget you”

news – summer 2007

'Vacstuds was, is, and will always be one of the most important places for me, because there I spent such a great time and over all I met people I will never forget in my life, people with whom I have shared very special moments, and people I remember every day; because of all this, I must say to everyone who has never spent time in any of VacStuds' schools that it is something they will never regret. THANK U SO MUCH IGM!' (a former Spanish student on the 'Messages Forum'); 'May Vacational Studies continue to change lives in magical ways!' (a Jamaican student); 'We want to send you our thanks for taking so good care of her while she was staying at your school. We are positive that she improved her English skills and being with other young people from different cultures and nationalities was also very beneficial. She really enjoyed her stay and made many good friends whom she has been in daily contact with through MSN. We see it as a positive thing, since she continues practising her English and exchanging experiences with her international friends' (an Icelandic parent); 'She was like last year so happy to stay one month in your 'castle' (a French parent); 'Thank you for the wonderful holidays my son had this year with Vacational Studies. He come back very happy with many new experiences which I believe will stay with him for a long time. He said that this year was even better than last. Now he really misses all his friends and I know he keeps in touch with them. Thank you one more time for this amazing time he has had' (a Polish parent); 'She has had a great stay, however she is not willing to tell her parents much of what she experienced!' (a Norwegian parent); 'Many thanks for a fantastic four weeks. I hope everyone enjoyed it as much as I did!' (a Sports Assistant); 'I would just like to thank you for giving me the opportunity to work for Vacational Studies. It was a pleasure to work for your organisation and I look forward to keeping in touch with friends I have made' (a Sports/Social Organiser); 'He really enjoyed his stay. He tells us he would like to go back next year... We have already had a small reunion in our house. We are also impressed by the reports from school. It's obvious that the students have had the staffs' attention. And please send my regards to the matron. She even repaired a shark he won in the amusement park – and the laundry was better than at home...' (a Norwegian parent); 'We would like to thank you and your staff for assisting him on his recent journey of self-discovery' (a British parent).

Modesty prevents further comment – or quotations. They are all true and all heartfelt, I know.

'We really want a two week Course' is something I sometimes hear, but only from parents. My experience over the last three and a half decades is that human nature – at least, that of a young person – does not work this way. It takes time to build up confidence, to release inhibition, to get used to a new situation. Week one is a little cautious; week two more relaxed. By week three everything is familiar and English is no longer a strange sound. Week four is when the real progress is made – both linguistically and socially. This is why our Course is a four week Course. It's the best length. It's an investment in time as well as money. It can't be compressed and it takes four weeks to achieve the best result. Our students do not get bored or homesick. Every one arrives on day 1 knowing no one and everyone leaves on day 28 knowing everyone – and in tears. It happens every summer and it works.

So what was special about the summer of 2007? Please read on...

Summer 2007

It was a summer like no other in my memory. Generally, we are unlucky if it rains once a week. This time it rained every week. For the first two weeks, it rained every day. Some days, it rained all day. Even the BBC reacted like a tabloid newspaper and the rolling 24-hour news channels would have had the world believe that we were all under water. Not so. People who live in low-lying areas or near rivers expect to get wet sometimes. Like the vast majority of the UK, we were untouched by water. The Courses carried on exactly as normal. Only sunbathing by the pool was curtailed. And the sun came out for Sports Day – and it stayed out.

After a summer at Cheam as a teacher, then Course Manager there in 2006, I knew that Joe Littenberg would make Mary Hare 2007 a fun place to be. From his baseball cap through his low slung pants to his designer loafers, he was the coolest dude of a Course Manager in the history of VacStuds. And the students loved him. He came down firmly when necessary, but the door to the office was always open and those few who did not come inside spontaneously were invited in for a chat. He knew the students so well and so full were his final reports that I had to reduce my font size to accommodate the wealth of information he accumulated on them. On the teaching side, we had Joe Wallis back for his second year with us as Director of Studies and Assistant Course Manager. Promoted during the Course, he led a team of talented teachers. Given the most difficult class, the pre-intermediates, Jenny Downes coped well with their different needs. Jon Naylor returned for a second summer and was put in charge of 'product realisation' (making sure that the film and magazine projects were duplicated by the end). Welcome newcomers Jo Millar, Josh Weinman, Karen Thompson and Chloe Huelamo completed the team. Each brought different strengths to the job. Back from having been an Assistant for two years and now promoted to the crucial role of Sports/Social Organiser was the unflappable and only occasionally glowering George Cockburn. He selected the best from the last two years and added his own brand of Britishness to the programme. His team was a strong one. The indefatigable Aneka Beswick was back for a second summer as was the still unshaven James Sutherland. Easy-going Paddy Plummer was brand new as was Charlie Horwood. All did a great job and the extra curricular side of the Course went with a swing. Once again, I augmented the assistant staff side of the Course as there were still no really suitable applicants for the Staff Helper posts. Back again for a sixth summer was our long-serving Matron, Bettina Watson who operated behind the scenes keeping the students healthy and the domestic side running. Our two British students, Lewis Weaver and Ashley Raghu, were immensely popular and helpful to the staff.

The students were, on the whole, well-motivated and joined in to create a typically happy VacStuds Course. Several are likely Staff Helpers in 2009/10. The prize for academic excellence was awarded to Marina Alba (Spain); for English-speaking to Filip Althof (Poland); for all-round performance to Gina Lücker (Germany). The crew also awarded a special prize for overall helpfulness to Erik Nicolai Stenersen-Grevstad (Norway).

It was brave of Keith Rutherford to take on the mantle of the Course Managership at Cheam this year, especially so as he teaches at Cheam during the rest of the year. He must have known he could make it work. There are some people with a natural authority. Keith is one of them. The good ship Cheam was a tight one under his new leadership. Soon he was able to loosen up and mesmerise the students with his stories. They loved them, of course. They would never dare even intimate otherwise. The DoS was Sarah Robinson, back for a fifth summer, this time in a non-teaching supervisory role overseeing the teaching programme and producing the DVDs and magazines at the end. Brynna Bird and Helen Delingpole were back for a great second summer. Maria Parisi, James Hamilton, James Blair-Pilling, Liam Bek and Mark Carver were all new and made their mark on the Course in various ways. To an extent, the Course is shaped by the personality of the Sports/Social Organiser. Newcomer Tim Watkin was the closest I have seen to perpetual motion in a long time. I interviewed him for an Assistant post and during the interview told him he was applying for the wrong job. No regrets about this appointment. Tim was an excellent Sports/Social Organiser and the students loved his boundless enthusiasm. He led a splendid team. Phil Stavri was back from last year, even stronger and more toned. Matt Kelly was a British student in 2003 and knew what the students liked. Lara Santos was promoted from Staff Helper to staff and used her peace-making skills to good effect. As unruffled as his brother, Alastair Cockburn was the new boy. Christine Tarr was superb as our new Matron, remaining composed and in control through some quite serious challenges. Most of the students took advantage of the opportunities. Some took advantage of our trust. For the one or two who found it hard to adjust, there was the tireless support of George Deeks, one of our British boys. The prize for academic excellence was awarded to Natalia Pachla (Poland); for English-speaking to Kristine Grændsen (Norway); the prize for all-round performance was not awarded this year.

Appearing at both schools, often accompanied by three small six-and-a-half year-olds called Ian, Piers and Lars, was Joanna Hook my absolutely brilliant ChildCare Assistant. When she was not exploring in the woods or taking on any number of fantasy roles, she helped the crews at both schools. My boys loved her. For the twenty seventh summer, tennis coaching was given by the stalwart Liz Fidler. The regular discos were provided by 'Pink Elephant Roadshow'. I am no expert, but the students seemed to like them. And there was me – visiting each school several times a day praising, admonishing, checking, filming and photographing, dispensing justice – some years like a deus ex Mercedes, but this year a Deus ex white Audi Avant – and loving every moment, of course.

'VacStuds magic in 5 minutes'

In 2006, Martin Webb, who filmed me for a BBC documentary last year, created a remarkable DVD encapsulating the mood of the Courses. He filmed the majority himself and I was flattered that he used some of my HD footage, too. I sent a copy to everyone and it is also on our web site. Having captured the social side of VacStuds, this summer his brief was to show the teaching and learning; the practical use of English. He spent several days in and out of classrooms, filming the task-based teaching and letting students talk about their learning experiences. His next five minute film 'VacStuds – English Internationally' will be ready towards the end of 2007 and will appear on our all new 2008 web site. These are the first two films in a trilogy. The third will be 'After VacStuds' showing how past students have used their English and gained from their international experiences. We shall also film students who are now adults and parents and those who have sent their own children to us to see the impact VacStuds has even after twenty years and longer. Let me know if you would like to contribute.

“May Vacational Studies continue to change lives in magical ways!”

VacStuds teaching programme

Summer 2007 was Tom Leighton's swansong as Academic Manager. In 2005, I put him through a DELTA Course to achieve the qualification the British Council requires an Academic Manager to have and employed him to create a new Programme of Work based on task-based learning, the philosophy of which he studied during the Course. In 2006, for each class there were two projects, the creation of a film and a magazine. For 2007, the plan was to have either the film or the magazine. In the event, Tom decided they should try both again. For 2008 we shall transfer the excellent material Tom created for the written work in the magazine to the script element of the film creation. A more structured filmscript will, therefore, cover the writing part of the programme of work and the oral side will be the acting and DVD creation. There will no longer be a magazine. Joe Littenberg and Joe Wallis will produce the revised programme of work. Task-based learning will form about half of the teaching. The rest will be more traditional. Sarah Robinson will take a DELTA Course next year in preparation for becoming the Academic Manager in 2008. She will be in overall charge of the teaching supervising a Director of Studies at each school who will be in charge of the teaching team there.

British students

From 2008, there will be no 'British Students'. If they are appointed, they will be 'UK Representatives'. They will live with the students and be subject to the same rules, but they will arrive with the staff and will be allocated to help classes by the Academic Manager and Director of Studies. I hope to have at least one native-speaking 'UK rep' at each school. Our Courses are not fully international without the UK being represented.

Sports day

During our soaking summer, we had assumed that Sports Day would be – just wet. The sun shone from an azure sky with fluffy cotton wool clouds and it was a perfect summer day.

Last year, Tom O'Sullivan, the Course Manager of the host school, Mary Hare, was determined to make Sports Day the day of friendly rivalry that I have always wished for. This year, Joe Littenberg was of the same view. A 'Welcome Cheam' banner greeted the visitors to Mary Hare and, although the tribal chanting remained, it was good humoured. This was the mood for the whole of Sports Day. Stephen Green (of Lillington Green who design all our literature) is a qualified referee and took charge of the main football match. Each School performed its song and dance routine to appreciative audiences and the day was rounded off by an outdoor disco from 'Apollo 2'. As is now customary, students from both Schools embraced as the bus drove off that night. It was another happy Sports Day.

Catering

Catering at Mary Hare was by their Catering Manager, Paul Leverton. Nothing was too much trouble for him and his staff. They decorated the room and tables for all the special dinners. The chocolate fountain made an appearance at the final dinner. I enjoyed all my meals there. Sodexo catered at Cheam again with Nick Dann in charge. My sons – who now attend Cheam's pre-prep school during the year – always compare my cooking unfavourably with Nick's. He provided the same menu that they enjoy so much. Each School had its Food Committee, but they had little to comment on this time and the catering ran smoothly.

Parents, children and unrealisable expectations

It is important that all parents read this section. The relationship between ourselves and the parents of children in our care is a partnership. We want all our young people to get the most out of the experience. For this reason, I have written a 'Parental Control Condition' into the contract we have with parents. In brief, I say 'We do our best to fulfill our 'duty of care' under English law based on good will and the trust established by your and your child's agreement to the 'rules' as evidenced by the signed 'Agreement and Travel Details' form. If we think a problem is likely to arise, we shall try to contact you before it does so it can be prevented. Nevertheless, if your child's attitude or behaviour is such that we find we cannot exercise the control required to fulfill our 'duty of care', we shall pass responsibility for control to the parent either by requesting the parent's presence or by telephone contact with the child. If this fails and we decide the child is beyond control, we shall expel.'

Generally we have excellent support from parents. Occasionally, we do not. There is no child who does not accept that they sometimes do wrong, make mistakes or act aberrationally. What children accept so readily is unacceptable to a tiny minority of parents. For their child to do wrong must mean that the child is a victim of circumstance and that someone else must be to blame. Some also find it hard to transfer responsibility for their child to a third party – us – and believe they must provide a constant input. All we ask is that parents leave everything to us, in the knowledge that (i) they will hear if there is a problem, (ii) no news is good news, (iii) we have experience in dealing with children, (iv) their child may make mistakes and (v) if what their child does is serious enough for us to require that child's removal from the Course, they must comply at once.

We do what we can to encourage students to learn and use the Course to advantage. We do our best to look after them. We make no other claims. We cannot force a child to integrate. While we provide encouragement, they must help themselves. They will find others who speak their language and they may be tempted to take the easy way. They may come with friends from home. We cannot keep friends apart when they are at the same School. They must decide to broaden their international horizons, mix and use English. Parents may make requests, but we reserve the right to place students in what we consider to be appropriate classes and dormitories. The final report we write will be our frank assessment. As the teaching/ learning situations are different, it may not be similar to the school report you are accustomed to. The Course is a communal experience. Individual freedom is restricted. Our school buildings are boarding schools – not hotels. Accommodation, washrooms, etc. are shared. Bedrooms are boarding school dormitories and these may be sparsely furnished. The schools we use are country houses adapted for use as boarding schools. Bathrooms may be away from dormitories and rotas for their use are sometimes needed. Clothes storage space may be limited. All sorts of compromises have to be made, but for most young people this is part of the fun. We also ask parents to accept that telephone contact with their children, especially in the first few days, is not a good idea. We ask that mobile phones are not brought. We are not being difficult, just putting into practice what we know from experience works. In effect, what we are requesting is a partnership between us based on our expertise and parents' trust in us. What we provide and the parameters of what we permit are in our literature. We act on the assumption that parents and students read it all. If your child is interested in drinking, smoking, going out at night and leading an independent life, please choose another organisation less restrictive than ours. We assume that parents will be realistic about their children. We exercise due control, but they have the freedom to do things that are wrong. If they do, there are repercussions outlined in the 'Notes'. We do what we can to prevent rule-breaking, but if it happens, parents must accept that it is occasioned by their child's free will, not lack of control on our part.

I can put it into context. Ours is a new, exciting and active environment. Parental control appears absent. Our students are a long way from home, without the constraints and responsibilities that tend to check behavioural excess. No doubt there is also the desire to impress one's peers. They may call it 'being carried away'. Whatever the causes, occasionally a few of our students may indulge in behaviour that is simply anti-social. If they get caught, they may feel they have little to lose. Protected by this feeling that no one of importance will ever know, I am aware that some students have broken our rules and even the law. All students come to us after a 'letter of recommendation' has been written about them by their school. To remove this feeling of anonymity and to encourage students to take responsibility for their own actions, we write frank reports to parents. We reserve the right to send the writer of the original 'letter of recommendation' a photocopy of any correspondence we have with parents about children in our care.

Contacting students

The students who adjust best are those whose parents phone them only on the two 'Telephone Sundays'. If these parents wish to know how their child is adjusting, they phone the Course Manager and ask.

There are some parents who feel they must speak to their children frequently. We ask parents who must speak to their children outside 'Telephone Sundays' to phone the payphone, not our School Office number. We cannot search for children in a large building and campus. The payphone may ring unanswered. A student may answer it. If so, that student can be asked to search for a student. That student may or may not comply with the request.

Mobile phones

'The curse of the mobile phone' caused at least one parent to block calls from her son's mobile to her phone. He was failing to adjust to the Course and phoning every day for comfort and support. When he could no longer receive the solace he needed from home, he started making friends and got on with enjoying himself. Mobile phones are not useful in the context of the Course. The time young people spend with us develops their sense of independence. They need to be able to cope with small challenges on their own. An immediate call home at the first sign of a problem delays the growing up process that is a part of the experience we give young people. The only time a phone is useful is when a child is away from the school. For 2008 we shall allow mobile phones to be used only on trip days. In line with UK Government Education Department advice on the possible health hazard for young people of microwaves near the developing brain in an enclosed environment, we do not permit students to use mobile phones inside the school. We prefer that a mobile phone is not brought. Any mobile phone brought must be kept in the office and used outdoors. We accept no responsibility for loss of or damage to mobile phones that are brought. Any mobile phone kept other than in the office will be removed.

English law

I state on the Application Form that this applies. There is nothing sinister about the inclusion of these words. We are de facto in loco parentis in the summer. We accept responsibility for looking after a large number of other people's children. We take this responsibility seriously. Parents trust us to make wise decisions. Sometimes, however, we receive requests which we consider unwise. For example, we are asked to let children be unaccompanied by staff when we consider they are not responsible enough to be unaccompanied. Children feel that, if they ask their parents to request something from us, we must comply with a parental request. We are the ones closest to what is happening. We know what a prudent parent would do and would not do in certain circumstances. Legally, we are expected to fulfill the role of a prudent parent – no more, no less. Sometimes we do not agree with what a parent is asking us to do. We shall use our discretion in all matters. Under English Law a parent may not sign away a child's rights. This includes the child's right to be protected by adults. We shall do what we think is right for the child. This is why I state that English Law applies.

Theatre visits

Most students request a visit to the theatre. They are asked to choose which show they wish to see in order of preference on a form which shows the Invoice number. The earlier the application, the lower the Invoice number. Tickets are allocated by Invoice number. The lower the Invoice number, the greater the chance of getting one's choice of theatre visit. 2008 Invoice numbers start at 13135. A 'Theatre Visits' choice list will be sent out in March or later.

Property

We ask that valuable items (including expensive clothes) are not brought. All items with a used re-sale value over £40 must nevertheless be listed on the 'Valuable Possessions' form. At the end of the Courses we send back every named item of property left behind. Un-named items are also returned if we have a good idea to whom they belong. We can keep items in our office on request. While they are safer in our office than elsewhere, we accept responsibility only for items stored in our safe. Items given to us for safe-keeping are kept in our safe for the duration of the Course and are not removed at any time. Property not in our safe and lost other than when in the student's possession on a trip is not covered by the Insurance policy we include as part of the Course Fee. We accept no responsibility for mobile phones.

We get mail:-

'This is to extend our sincere thanks for the most wonderful and educational time H spent with you, your colleagues and all the students this summer. She returned home with lots of new experiences, increased skills in English and last but not least a new attitude to the international and global world. I am pleased to say that all our expectations came through, H's and mine included. I would also like to thank you for the follow-ups and the final academic reports and leaving certificate, documents which at the moment mean a lot to H and which I hope will become useful in her future activities. I will be happy to be contacted by parents of new students and I welcome anyone to contact me. My youngest daughter is already looking forward to attending.'

(Letter from a parent)

'I want to thank you for another amazing month! This year I knew what I was going to, but I have to admit I didn't think it could possibly live up to last year's memories. It did though. It was absolutely great, but it was not the same as last year, just different! Mostly because of the people! And I made a lot of great friends! I have had so many new experiences, improved my English and made friends for a lifetime. I feel so lucky, because VacStuds has actually changed my life! Cause now I feel a lot more independent and secure of myself. I cannot wait to get out of this little country so next year I am going to America for a year. After VacStuds I fell in love with boarding schools and the environment there was, so this year I am going to a boarding school far from home. Both decisions made by my good experiences at VacStuds. I have some friends who went to Malta and England this summer on other summer camps to improve their English, and when sharing stories with them the difference is huge! I am sure you are proud to be maybe the only serious school, cause after what I've heard they didn't learn a lot of English..!'

(Letter from a student)

Health & EHIC

All students are entitled to free emergency treatment under the Medical Insurance policy included in the Course Fee for illnesses or accidents that happen in Britain. EU and EEA residents are entitled to free treatment under the National Health Service for illnesses or accidents that happen in Britain. Pre-existing conditions are not covered by our insurance. No one (not even an EU or EEA resident) is entitled to free treatment under the NHS for a pre-existing condition unless they have an EHIC (European Health Insurance Card). EHICs were introduced on 1 June 2004 and are available from Social Security or Health Department offices overseas. If an overseas Social Security or Health Department office states that an EHIC is not needed because free treatment for a pre-existing condition is available for anyone in the EU or EEA on a short stay, that advice is wrong and the office should contact the Department of Health on +44 20 7210 5318 for confirmation. If they have a pre-existing condition and do not have an EHIC, students should have their own medical insurance.

Lost luggage

New arrangements for hand baggage mean that more cases are lost by airlines than before. We shall continue to help students who arrive with no luggage to buy necessary items, but as the contract the airlines have is with the passenger (not ourselves) they will not refund the cost to us. We shall inform parents what has happened and take the cost from pocket money. The airline will then reimburse the parent who will, we hope, have topped up the pocket money.

Excess baggage

The economy class limit is 20 kilos. From 2008, the airlines will insist that luggage over 24 kilos is put in a second suitcase (which must be bought) and then there will be an additional charge of £100. Students must, therefore, bring less than 20 kilos of luggage.

VacStuds DVD

'VacStuds 2007 All Over Again' has been edited and sent to those requesting it. For those students wishing to relive the summer and for those parents trying to find out what made it 'the best summer of my life', here is an instant walk down Memory Lane. Parents of 2008 students who would like a preview can request a copy.

Before and during the course

Parents are welcome to contact me on any matter. In July and August I tend to be at my desk from 08.00 (English time) until 10.00 and then I travel around the schools. For practical reasons, therefore, it is best to make contact with me during the Courses via the Course Manager. Just before the Course, I send each parent 'last minute' information with my GSM phone number. For information, this is +44 7717 007 007.

Staff helpers

If possible, we like to have a male and/or a female former student on each Course as unpaid helpers, providing a link between staff and students. They tend to be 18-21 and to have left a gap of one summer after being a student. SHs are chosen early in the new year. Potential SHs should contact me before Christmas. If 'leadership potential' or an equivalent phrase is mentioned in my letter accompanying the final report, this suggests that a SH application would be considered favourably.

After the Course

Please feel you can contact me about anything connected with Britain. For example, parents ask for my advice on continuing their children's education in Britain. I am happy to help. No charge! I see this as a natural extension of my work with young people. Students ask for information, sometimes ten or twenty years later or more. No problem!

Vacational Studies trade mark

Our logo and the words Vacation Studies have been registered as trade marks. We have no connection with any other organisation – whether with a similar or dissimilar name.

The Jörg Weise Association

This exists to encourage international understanding. Occasionally its Trophy is awarded for an outstanding contribution to the international aims of the Course. Details are on www.vacstuds.com/JWA. It was not awarded in 2007.

Giotto

This enables our students to keep in touch with friends from when they were students with us and to make new contacts for social or professional purposes. Details are on www.vacstuds.com/GIOTTO.

Vacational Studies Foundation

The Vacation Studies Foundation was registered as a Charity under English Law in January 2000 to assist talented young people. Details are on www.vacstuds.com/FOUNDATION.

H.T.W. Mucklejohn

My father, who was Company Secretary from the founding of Vacation Studies until his death in 2003, was a great support to me. In his memory, the Jörg Weise Association has donated in perpetuity a full Scholarship which I am able to award when I come across a young person who would benefit from our Courses, but cannot apply for financial reasons. If you know one, tell me.

My thanks

...to all those who trusted me with the care of their children this summer. I value this confidence and aim to provide 'the investment that can never be taken away'. Those who have been to us and their parents will know that 'come to Vacation Studies and change your life' is as true now as it was in 1973.

And finally...

For those who are interested, my second book about my adventures ('And Then There Were Three – Expanded Edition' (ISBN 1903933730)) was published in June 2006 and is available inter alia via www.amazon.com.
